“My refuge and my fortress; my God, in whom I trust”: I thank you for the assurance that whenever I call on you, you will answer (Psalm 91:2).

Prelude

We invite you to enjoy the prelude as a time of quiet reflection, and to individually prepare your hearts for the worship of God.

Call to Worship

Leader: Gather in, all who live in God’s shadow.

People: We’ve come to worship the One in whom we trust.

Leader: No need to fear, for God is our dwelling place.

People: We rejoice in the ways we’re held close,

Leader: we are not left to face trouble alone.

All: So we share our confidence: God’s faithfulness stands for all time!

Sharing Peace

Prayer Time and Lord’s Prayer

(To share your joys and concerns, please email them to prayerrequests@stjamesraleigh.org, where they will then be shared with our Prayer Chain.)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Choir Anthem – How Can I Keep from Singing?

Balli Viracola, flute

My life flows on in endless song, above earth’s lamentation;
I hear the real, though far-off, hymn that hails a new creation.
Above the tumult and the strife, I hear its music ringing;
It sounds an echo in my soul: how can I keep from singing?

When tyrants tremble, sick with fear, and hear their death-knell ringing;
When friends rejoice, both far and near, how can I keep from singing?
In prison cell and dungeon vile, our thoughts to them are winging;
When friends by shame are undefiled, how can I keep from singing?

What though the tempest 'round me roars? I know the Savior liveth!
What though the darkness 'round me close? Songs in the night He giveth.
No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that Rock I'm clinging;
Since Love is Lord of heav'n and earth, how can I keep from singing?
